

AREF EVENT

THE WELLNESS TREND

WEDNESDAY 1ST MAY 2019

AREF's Education and Training Committee in collaboration with AREF FutureGen invite you to a panel discussion on how the Wellness trend is influencing the real estate strategies of occupiers and landlords alike.

Hosted by Schroders, we will discuss lessons and corporate motivations for their new HQ building, hear about Landid's conviction to deliver the first Landlord 'WELL Certified' building in the UK (The Porter Building in Slough) as well as understand how valuers and the investors market are adapting to the trend of Wellness.

REGISTRATION, BREAKFAST & NETWORKING - 08.15
EVENT START - 09.00
FINISH - 10.30

Venue: Schroders Auditorium, 1 London Wall Place, London EC2Y 5AU map

This event is FREE and open to all AREF Fund, Affiliate, Associate Members and Investors, including our FutureGen Network, as well as Non-Executive/Independent Directors of fund boards and oversight committees.

Open to trial members for a fee of £79+VAT (£25 +VAT for FutureGen trial members)

This event counts as 1.5hr of CPD.

Email info@aref.org.uk
to register your place

Click to follow us:

Linked in twitter

Speakers include:

Charlotte Jacques,
Head of Sustainability
at Schroders Real Estate

Dr Lee Elliott, Partner, Global Head of Occupier Research at Knight Frank

(author of (Y)OUR Space 'Insights from the Global Workplace' report)

Michael Brodtman,
Exec. Dir. Valuations
Advisory at CBRE
Global Investors

Chris Hiatt, Director at Landid
(developer of the Porter Building)

Moderated by:
Clare Thomas, Partner
at CMS CMNO
(author of Smart, Healthy, Agile)

Proudly sponsored by:

VISTRA 